Dear Antonio,

The attached course does seem to be an advanced language course (not psychology). There is MLL 299 for 6 credits that should work.

Good morning, Prof. Cook

One of our current students abroad has written to me about the attached Italian 302 course. She stated that she submitted the course for approval to MLL but was told that it a psychology course. Could you please review the syllabus/learning outcomes and confirm that this is the case before I approach the psych. dept. for approval?

Thanks once again!

Be well!
